

National Self-Help Housing Conference

SHARING THE VISION

2020

SCHOLARSHIP REQUESTS

Rural Community Assistance Corporation is awarding a limited number of scholarships to self-help grantees in the western region for the upcoming National Self-Help Conference in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Scholarships will be paid as an expense reimbursement. Recipients must attend all three days of the conference (attendance will be verified) to qualify.

Requests for scholarships must be received by December 6, 2019. Please submit your request including; name of organization, scholarship applicant(s), contact information, and staff position(s) to Michele Weaver mweaver@rcac.org. Awards will be announced on or before December 16, 2019.

The following expenses are eligible to be reimbursed up to the maximum of your award:

- Transportation costs (airfare, mileage, luggage fees, ground transportation)
- Hotel costs for up to three (3) nights (room charges only including tax)
- Meals not provided at the conference (capped at the federal per diem rate and travel days are reimbursed at 75 percent of the daily rate)

This scholarship will be paid as an expense reimbursement after the event. If awarded, you will receive a scholarship agreement form and reimbursement request form.

For questions, please contact:

Michele Weaver • Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC)
mweaver@rcac.org