Water helps to keep you from getting too hot when you run and play outside!

Water has no sugar which means you have less chances of getting cavities!

We need to replace the water our bodies lose during the day so we can stay healthy!