

SMALL BUSINESS LOAN PROGRAM

Rural Community Assistance Corporation's (RCAC) Small Business Loan Program helps create jobs and promote economic development in rural communities. Ninety eight percent of all businesses are small businesses by federal definition. Small businesses provide vital services, supplies and products in smaller rural communities. RCAC offers loans for a variety of business financing needs including working capital, lines of credit and long-term loans for real estate and equipment acquisition. Most small businesses that generate employment can be considered for loans.

General Program Requirements

■ ELIGIBLE APPLICANT

For-profit and nonprofit entities, Tribal Governments and sole proprietorships are eligible.

■ ELIGIBLE AREA

The business must serve rural areas with populations of 50,000 or less.

■ ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

The loan under consideration must result in job retention or creation, i.e., provide employment.

For larger loans that require a loan guarantee, the borrower must meet any guarantor requirements in addition to RCAC requirements.

RCAC

Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC) provides training, technical and financial resources and advocacy so rural communities can achieve their goals and visions

Founded more than 40 years ago, RCAC provides a wide range of community development services for rural and Native American communities, and community-based organizations in 13 western states and other Pacific islands. RCAC was certified as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) in 1996 and finances affordable housing, community facilities, utility infrastructure and small businesses in rural communities. As a certified CDFI, RCAC fills financing gaps and serves those traditionally neglected by conventional markets.

With more than $150 million in lending capital, RCAC is a major resource for rural communities. Headquartered in West Sacramento, California, RCAC's employees serve rural communities from field offices located throughout our service region.
